

WINE TASTING at Meadowbank Estate

Surrounded by vines and nestled in the beautiful Coal River Valley 15 minutes from Hobart, Meadowbank Estate is Tasmania's most inspiring venue. With stunning architecture, floor-to-ceiling windows and sweeping vineyard and water views Meadowbank has a natural ambience. Our fabulous facilities are complimented by seasonally driven menus, a range of estate grown cool climate wines and truly outstanding service.

Whether it is a small wine tasting for 10 people or an end of conference wine tasting and lunch or dinner for 200 guests, Meadowbank Estate is the perfect venue. Meadowbank takes great pride showcasing our wines and in the presentation of our wine tasting. It is something we treat seriously enough to make the whole experience lots of fun but also informative.

*Ever wondered what the difference is between Riesling and Chardonnay?
Do you know what you're looking for when tasting wine?
Which wine goes in which glass?
What is a corked wine?*

Join our Cellar Master as they run you through all the tips and tricks you'll ever need to impress even the toughest wine tosser!

Some of the topics covered will be:

Wine faults: detecting a corked wine
Glassware (or stemware, as posh people call it)
Talking the talk: commonly used wine lingo
Recommending wines you've never tasted.

At the end of the course you will receive a certificate to prove that you too can 'talk the talk!'

CERTIFICATE OF WINE SNOBBERY

This is to certify that has successfully completed a course at the Meadowbank School of Wine Snobbery and has achieved wine snob status

Recipients of this certificate are now qualified to bang on incessantly about inconsequential wine trivia wherever and whenever they deem appropriate, or indeed inappropriate

R E S P O N S I B L E S E R V I C E O F A L C O H O L P O L I C Y

There is no such thing as a “private function”. Meadowbank Estate is a licensed premises and all aspects of the Liquor Licensing Act 1990 apply including the responsible service of alcohol.

We will not serve liquor or allow the provision of liquor to any person under the age of 18 years.

We will recognise the signs of intoxication and we will discourage service to the point of intoxication.

We will not admit, serve, supply or allow the supply of alcohol to anyone who appears to be intoxicated.

We will not permit drunkenness, fighting, abusive or obscene language or suggestions, unwelcome advances or physical contact, directed at customers or staff.

Failure to observe these principles may lead to refusal of service and a request to leave the property.

In the event of an intoxicated customer refusing to leave upon such a request, our staff will call a taxi for them and provide them with a non-alcoholic beverage.

With regard to the refusal of service we ask our clients to nominate one person to act as liaison between staff and intoxicated guests who have been refused service.

We are obliged under the Liquor Licensing Act 1990 to ask an individual who appears to be under 18 years of age for identification. In order to avoid any kind of embarrassment.

Meadowbank would appreciate being advised if there are to be any underage guests attending your function.

We will close the bar 15 minutes prior to the conclusion of a function to ensure guests have an opportunity to finish their drinks and depart on time.
